Vocalist and Song stylist Lyia Meta releases...

"ALL MY LOVING"

"Meta has something which few singers possess, and that is complete control of her powerful voice." Sammy Stein (International Editor for Jazz Journalist Associatio) Something Else Reviews.

In her latest project, Lyia Meta takes on a classic, paying homage to legendary artists who have shaped our musical heritage. By reimagining "All My Loving" by The Beatles as a jazz-pop reinterpretation, she offers a fresh perspective while honoring its timeless appeal.

Acknowledging the enduring charm of this classic piece, which has captivated listeners for generations, Lyia collaborates once more with producer Bob McGilpin and co-producer Gene Rabbai. Together, they reinterpret the song, infusing it with Lyia's unique style and personal experiences.

This single builds on the success of her earlier work with MGilpin and Rabbai, offering a delightful jazz-pop twist that respects the past while offering a new take that feels both familiar and refreshing.

"Lyia Meta 's talent and artistic pedigree means she moves seamlessly between genres. All of which adds up to a gloriously free expression of her creativity (...)- FAULT Magazine

With an extremely rare contralto vocal range and a voice that straddles both blues and classical music, her deep, resonant vocals conjure the likes of blues pop greats Nina Simone and Amy Winehouse. Lyia has been recognized in a wide range of genres throughout her long music career but the obvious standout pairing has been in blues and jazz.

"In the kaleidoscopic world of music, few artists manage to refract light into as diverse a palette as Malaysian singer Lyia Meta....." (2023) Billboard MagazineAR

Lyia Meta is an international multi award-winning singer and songwriter, and an exhibited visual artist. Of local Creole Portuguese, she is currently based in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. She has performed in Los Angeles, Texas, India, Malaysia and has been featured in Rolling Stone Magazine IN, Billboard Magazine, FAULT Magazine, Reader's Digest and many more. Meta finds her greatest influences in rock and blues, yet she fearlessly defies genre barriers in every project she creates, consistently delivering a refreshing sound that speaks to listeners across generations worldwide.

"Reimagining "All My Loving" was approached with great respect for the timeless music of The Beatles. Collaborating with my producer Bob McGilpin and co-producer Gene Rabbai, our rendition of this iconic song is a heartfelt expression and a sincere appreciation for their enduring legacy" Lyia Meta
